The London No. 1 Gin

“ A London-made gin from Gonzalez Byass; pale blue color; soft, muted nose; smooth and lush with soft juniper and botanicals; smooth and balanced with pleasant flavors; the blue color comes from macerated gardenias.

The London No. 1 Gin

“It’s hard to miss the pale robin’s egg blue of this London Dry-style gin “with certified color.” Though neutral in scent, it’s complex on the palate, starting with a delicate floral note that morphs into lemon and grapefruit peel before fading into a clean, bracing, peppery finish. Adds surprising color to G&Ts and other mixed drinks.”
